

ERASMUS+

BLENDED INTENSIVE

PROGRAM 2026

Join us in Karabük/Türkiye for an intensive international week focused on contemporary security challenges and strategic responses!

International Security: Global Threats and Cooperation 5 ECTS

📅 13-17 APRIL, 2026

KARABÜK UNIVERSITY
ERASMUS+ BLENDED INTENSIVE PROGRAMME
INTERNATIONAL SECURITY: GLOBAL THREATS AND COOPERATION

Dates: 13–17 April, 2026

Venue: Karabük University, Karabük, Türkiye

- From 13 to 17 April 2026, Karabük University will host a Blended Intensive Programme (BIP) bringing together students and academics from different countries to explore key issues in international security, cybersecurity, and strategic communication.
- A key focus module, “Cybersecurity, Hybrid Threats and Strategic Communication,” will integrate practical and analytical perspectives on information warfare, digital resilience, media influence, and hybrid threats shaping today’s global security environment.

KARABÜK UNIVERSITY
ERASMUS+ BLENDED INTENSIVE PROGRAMME
INTERNATIONAL SECURITY: GLOBAL THREATS AND COOPERATION
13-17 APRIL 2026

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

The programme will be delivered in two complementary phases.

Virtual Component: An online kick-off session conducted via Microsoft Teams, approximately two weeks prior to the BIP, designed to introduce participants, outline the programme framework, and initiate collaborative discussions.

On-site Component in Karabük:

 Day	 Activities
Day 1	 Welcome & Orientation Session  Guided Tour of Karabük University Campus
Day 2	 Workshops at Karabük University Campus
Day 3	 Workshops at Karabük University Campus
Day 4	 Field Trip to Safranbolu (UNESCO World Heritage City)  Free Time  Horse Riding Activity (Optional)
Day 5	 Free Time  Closing Dinner &  Diploma Ceremony
 Day	 Activities