

THE OLD PRINTING HOUSE IN ŁÓDŹ. A BRAND NEW BASECAMP.

In Poland, in the city of Łódź, you will find a famous historical building called the "Printing House of Łódź". Behind these walls exists the story of freedom to print books and papers: Freedom to share knowledge. It is hard to think of a more fitting place to place a hotel like BaseCamp. BaseCamp Łódź has private rooms; single and double.

BaseCamp is one of the most modern dormitories in Poland. About 3,700 square meters of the building are dedicated to commercial space: Large gym, canteen, café, library, laundry and other relevant services.

A coffee shop and gardens open onto the courtyard and the street.

BaseCamp Łódź offers 487 rooms in 11 room categories and more than 620 beds.

ŁÓDŹ

Lodz is the third largest city in Poland, but it is second to none when it comes to innovation and creativity. Tradition and modernity come together in a perfect blend to create a forward-thinking and multicultural atmosphere. This makes it an ideal incubator for new ideas. It does not matter whether you are into art or business. The city welcomes everyone, and offers everything: Art Nouveau architecture, Piotrkowska Street, the longest commercial street in Europe, and Lodz's famous Film School.

LOCATION

BaseCamp Lodz is right in the city center. It is located in one of Lodz's most famous and characteristic buildings, "Printing house of Lodz".
